"Richmond stands sorely in need of a regular, trained orchestra, to fill out the complement of her attractions. To that end, and the furtherance of a noble charity, many of our most prominent ladies have determined to give a series of four concerts during the months of Decomber, January, February, and March.

"These concerts will comprise the best efforts of Richmond's skilled musicians, augmented by eminent talent from the North. The most careful selections will be made in procuring solo-ists. These artists will form one of the chief attractions of this series of entertainments, and will not fail to please the

THE JUCK OPERA COMPANY. The coming season of grand opera by the Emma Juch English Opera Company at the Academy Monday and Tuesday, November 24th and 25th, will undoubtedly prove the musical event of the present season. Emma Juch, the prima donna from whom this organization takes its name, has already achieved an enviable distinction in Italian, German, and English opera. She is, as is well known in Richmond, the possessor of vocal organs of phenomenal strength and exquisite sweetness, has true dramatic fire, and a beautiful stage appearance. Her company is made up with the especial object of giving such support as an artist of her accomplishments demands, including such noted singers as Georgine von Januschowsky, Carlotta Maconda, Marie Freebert, Cecelia Hecht, sopranos; Lizzio Macnichol, Bernico Holmes, contraitos; Payne Clark, Charles Apply to Hedmondt, William Stephens, George Gould, tenors; Otto Rathjens, Henry Vogel, Allerino Gannio, baritones; Franz Vetta, E. N. Knight, and S. H. Dudley, bassos. This body of singers will have the assistance of an orchestra of thirty solo instrumentalists and a chorus of eighty powerful voices, all being under the direction of Adel Neu-endorf, the New York conductor.

The operas announced are of unusual strength and give Miss Juch great scope strength and give Miss Juch great scope for the display of her vocal abilities. They will be given in the following order: Monday, "The Hinguenots"; Theselay matinee, "Der Freischutz," and Tuesday evening, "The Flying Dutchman." Four special cars are required to handle the scenery, costumes, properties, and effects used in staying their productions. The preliminary sale of seats will be opened at the music store of Walter D.
